

Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence Program: Rules and Regulations

1. Program Eligibility

Related Parties:

- Casino Nova Scotia and Music Nova Scotia employees and their immediate family members are ineligible for this program.

Residency Requirement:

- Primary artist and/or the majority of the group must have a permanent address in Nova Scotia and must have held primary residence there for 12 months prior to the application deadline.
- Primary artist or registered company pays income tax to the Province of Nova Scotia
- Proof of residency may be required and will be verified by Music Nova Scotia.

Age Requirement:

- Applicants must be 19 years of age or older - no exceptions. Applicants must be able to prove their age via official government issued identification.

Classification of Artists (Developing Artist Status - Level I or II):

Only artists defined as "Developing" are eligible for the Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence Program. All applications to the Artist in Residence program will be evaluated by Music Nova Scotia to determine their eligibility as "Developing". You ARE NOT ELIGIBLE for the Artist in Residence program if you are considered export ready within the Music Nova Scotia investment program. The following questions will help to determine your eligibility status:

Have you:

1. toured significantly outside Nova Scotia?
2. secured a professional artist manager?
3. secured the services of a professional publicist and/or executed a publicity campaign?
4. been represented by a professional booking agent?
5. have you ever secured a licensing deal with a record label?
6. received significant media exposure outside of Nova Scotia?

You ARE NOT ELIGIBLE for the Artist in Residence program if you have received funding from the Export Development Program under the "Travel and Touring Initiative" or "Marketing Support" components.

2. Application Process and Requirements:

Applicants must fill out an online application form, which will be made available on the Music Nova Scotia website (www.musicnovascotia.ca) on May 11, 2017. The deadline to apply for the Artist in Residence Program is May 29th, at 5:00 PM. Along with general contact information, web and social media links, applicants are encouraged to have the following prepared before beginning the application; these elements are mandatory and must accompany your submission:

1. Current biography
2. Current press photo
3. Statement on artists' goals and career plan. You must provide an extensive plan outlining the coming year's goals, plans, and career trajectory. Please use the career plan instructions document/template provided here. Once you have completed the plan, attach the document to the application via the "attachments" tab at the bottom of the application form.
4. Web link to a music streaming site where a maximum of 3 songs are available; these songs will be evaluated by the jury. Please only link 3 songs - do not provide a link to a player which features more than 3 songs (e.g. a full album).
5. Lyric sheets for the 3 songs you will be submitting.

If you have any questions or require any assistance with your submission, you are strongly advised to contact Blaise Theriault (blaise@musicnovascotia.ca) to ensure your application is complete and fulfils all the requirements.

3. Selection of Successful Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence

Applicants to the Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence Program will be scored through a peer assessment jury process. The jury will be comprised of local music industry experts and will also include a representative of Casino Nova Scotia. The jury will use the following scoring system to select the successful applicant:

1. Quality of written application that outlines artist(s)' goals and career plan – 15%
2. Evaluation of submitted creative content (Lyrics, demo, CD, promo materials) – 30%
3. Artist interview – 15%
4. Public online vote – 10%
5. Live performance evaluation – 30% (performance to be held on June 23, 2017 - artist must be able to perform on this date).

The top 10 scores for the first two (2) components move on to the artist interview evaluation. Five (5) artists from these 10 will then be selected to move on to the public online vote and live performance evaluation. These five artists will carry their score from steps 1-4 into the final performance evaluation.

4. Responsibilities of the Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence

The successful artist in residence must agree to the following in principle:

- Participation in public performances as scheduled by Casino Nova Scotia for the length of the project (date, time, location and frequency to be determined through a mutually agreed upon contract agreement between the successful artist and Casino Nova Scotia)
- Non-exclusive usage of image, likeness and recorded works by Casino Nova Scotia and their partners
- Participation in Casino Nova Scotia promotional and advertising campaigns
- Participation in Music Nova Scotia showcasing opportunities as determined by Music Nova Scotia with mutual agreement between the successful artist in residence and Music Nova Scotia
- Creation of a professional quality demo recording due on completion of the project. (Demo may be used for commercial purposes upon completion of project. Copyright of the sound recording will be owned by the Artist in Residence)
- Work regularly with the Music Nova Scotia Member Training Manager to chart and execute career path
- Meet quarterly with the Member Training Manager to discuss and evaluate reports before quarterly submission deadline.
- Provide all required project reports and receipts in an accurate and timely fashion

- 100% of eligible expenses will be funded to a maximum of amount of funding available
- The successful artist in residence is responsible for any eligible expenses over and above the amount of funding available Flexibility in dispensation of eligible expenses is allowed with the approval of Music Nova Scotia. However, no more than 25% of the amount of funding available can be allocated to living expenses.

6. Ineligible Expenses (not an exhaustive list)

- Debt financing including student loan repayment
- Household bills in arrears
- Capital costs including the purchase of musical equipment or any tools of the trade
- Management or agent fees

7. Payments, Reporting and Cashflow

Payment to successful Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence

- The artist in residence will receive a 25% advance upon project start date (July 2017)
- Timely and completed quarterly reports submitted to Music Nova Scotia trigger each 25% payment
- Reports must include project activity to date and receipts of eligible expenses
- Eligible expenses are 100% funded, however any expenses over amount of funding available are the responsibility of the artist in residence

Project Reporting Schedule:

- Project Quarter #1 (July): Advance of 25%
- Project Quarter #2 (October): 25% payment and first project report
- Project Quarter #3 (January): 25% payment and second project report
- Project Quarter #4 (April): 0% payment and third project report
- Project Completion (July): 25% payment issued on successful completion and final report.
- Failure to provide a completed project report after the specified deadline at any time during the project will result in the artist in residence becoming in default of the program
- Artist must meet with Member Training Manager before submitting each of their quarterly reports.

8. Failed Projects Contingency

The successful Casino Nova Scotia Artist in Residence will receive a letter of offer and enter into a legally binding funding agreement with Music Nova Scotia. The funding agreement will detail all deliverables and deadlines for reporting and payments. The agreement will also detail terms of payments and procedures as they relate to failed projects. If the artist in residence fails to execute the project deliverables and meet the reporting deadlines at anytime during the project they will become in default of the program.

If the artist in residence becomes in default they will be legally responsible to pay back all monies paid to date and will not receive any future payments. Music Nova Scotia will collect payment from the party in default for reinvestment to the program. Music Nova Scotia will exercise all options for program repayments from those in default but will not be responsible for such payments to Casino Nova Scotia if they are deemed uncollectable.

If a successful artist in residence becomes in default in the first quarter of the program year the runner up from that year will be offered the residency.
